

North Carolina Augmentative Communication Association

Membership Application

NCACA functions in accordance with Federal and NC State Regulations for a non-profit organization.

The North Carolina Augmentative and Alternative Communication Association is committed to providing leadership in the promotion of the best possible communication for people in NC with complex communication needs. Critical to our achieving this mission are the partnerships which we have established with service providers, educators, researchers, manufacturers, state agencies, legislators, persons with complex communication needs and their families.
